Burton Pilots Fourth Team to Championship

The fourth T. I. A. A. basketball championship within the past nine years has been hung up in the halls of the West Texas State Teachers College through the loss of a game by the East Texas State Teachers College Lions to the Sam Houston Teachers team Tuesday night.

The Buffaloes played their last T. I. A. A. conference game at Abilene last week when they took the McMurray College Indians into camp by a score of 37-23. Only one conference game was lost this season and it was a thriller with Denton Eagles taking the game by only one point.

The Buffaloes opened the conference schedule by taking two games from the Sull Ross Lobos at Alpine. The next conference games were split with Denton. Following that the Buffaloes have won two games from Abilene Christian College, two more from Sul Ross, and two from McMurray to hold their percentage to .900.

The loss of the game Tuesday night by the East Texas Lions brought their losses to two with only twelve games scheduled, thus placing their average in the conference standing below the Buffs.

The Buffaloes went into the lead last week when the San Marcos College was knocked out of the running, leaving the Commerce College as the only possible winner over the Buffs for the championship title.

In nine years the teams piloted by Coach S. D. Burton have won four championships, have held second place three times, and stood in third place for two seasons.

The Buffaloes won the championship of the T. I. A. A. for the last time in 1928. Also the title in 1927 was held here. The first and second place teams last year both lost the same number of games as did the Canyon five, but they each played more games and consequently finished with better percentages.

Five men on the Buff team this year have been members of former championship teams. Keith, Ward, Gerald, Newman, and Fuller have played as T. I. A. A. champs in former years. Had the Buffaloes won the championship last year, Keith, Ward, and Newman would become owners of four gold basketballs, by virtue of the win this year.

At the last meeting of the Canyon school board, I. B. Carruth was re-elected as superintendent of the Canyon schools for the year 1930-1931.

Mr. Carruth is now serving his first year as superintendent. Before his election as superintendent he was principal of the high school.

J. J. Bauer Announces for Re-election

After being solicited by many of my friends to make the race for office of county commissioner, precinct No. 3, I take this means of announcing to voters of this precinct that I will make the race for re-election to the office of county commissioner, subject to the action of the Democratic primary in July.

Feeling that I am well enough known to the voters of this precinct that it is not necessary for me to give a review of my past actions as commissioner.

In making my announcement I want to state that I am making the race upon my own merits only. Your vote and influence will be greatly appreciated.

College Boys Will Get Trip to Stock Show

At least five Panhandle students who are taking work in the Agricultural department of the West Texas State Teachers College are hoping that they will be the ones chosen to go to the live stock show at Fort Worth, March 8.

These five are Jody Boston of Kress, Victor Harmon of Tulia, Clarence Kaylor of Plainview, Paul Nafzgar of Olton, and Weldon Terry of Venus.

From this five, three will be selected to make the trip to Fort Worth. They will be accompanied by Prof. Frank R. Phillips, head of the department.

President Hill Leaves for East To Attend Meet

J. A. Hill, president of the West Texas State Teachers College, left for Atlantic City, where he will attend the winter meeting of the National Education Association, and the meeting of the American Association of Teachers Colleges. The Canyon college is a member of the last named association.

Mrs. Geraldine Green, dean of women of the Teachers College, left Saturday for Atlantic City, where she will appear on the program of the National Association of Deans of Women, which is a department of the N. E. A. and meets for a two days' session just preceding the National meeting.

Mrs. Green, who is a well known speaker throughout Texas, will address the national meeting on discipline problems of a college dean of women.

STORK SPECIAL

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Scott, a daughter. Mrs. Scott and the baby returned from the hospital in Amarillo this week.

Pity the poor man whose wife will make an effort to win first place at the contest to which only women will be allowed to enter at Trades Day Monday. The women will be offered an opportunity to show to the world their vaunted ability to wield the rolling pin. A substantial prize awaits the lady who is declared winner in the contest. It is rumored that the mark at which the women throw will be the man who looks most nearly like Jiggs.

That, according to the entertainment committee in charge of the program, will be one among many of the interesting and entertaining features of Trades Day, Monday, February 24.

This will be the first Trades Day held during this year after a two months' inactivity on the part of the Chamber of Commerce.

A hog calling contest, old-time fiddlers and others are said to be among the things in store for the visitors to Canyon next Monday. Approximately $100 in cash prizes and merchandise will be given away at that time. From the announcements made through the columns of the News this week the merchants of Canyon are going to make the day one worth while in offering good values in bargain prices on merchandise in their store.

W. A. Warren, president of the Chamber of Commerce, extends an invitation to the people of the Canyon trade territory, on behalf of the organization, to attend the Trades Day here and take advantage of the bargain offers made by merchants. Also to join in trying to win one or more of the innumerable prizes to be given away on Monday.

Do not fail to come to Canyon on that day. You will lose if you stay away, you will gain if you come.

Youth Fined For Breaking Street Lights

Dick Zigler was fined $25 and costs in the justice court Tuesday afternoon upon a charge of breaking street lights. County Attorney Flanagan Smith was prosecutor in the case.

W. J. Flesher, attorney for the defendant, announced that the case would be appealed to the county court, for trial at the March term.

Removal of the Stock Pens Is Now Under Way

Work is well under way on the removal of the stock pens by the Santa Fe railway, in order to make way for the opening of a new residential addition to Canyon. Officials of the company have notified W. A. Warren, president of the Chamber of Commerce, that the work would in all probability be completed the latter part of this week. They assured him that every detail of the work would be cleared by March 1.

Mr. Warren states that nothing will be in the way by March 1 to hinder the opening of the new residential section by Brymer and Gilvin, realtors, who have proposed to open the addition provided the stock pens are removed by March 1. In the opinion of Mr. Warren the railway company has already expended several thousands of dollars in the removal of the stock pens. The pens are being moved to the west end of town between the main line tracks and the Plainview branch.

City Is Building a Fence Around Property

The property of the city of Canyon which includes a block on which is located the water plant, is being fenced with a five-foot woven wire fence. Steel posts are being used and a three-wire extension will be placed above the woven wire.

ANOTHER SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE

By Clyde W. Warwick, Representative 123rd District.

The Fifth Called Session of the Legislature started yesterday, and will continue for the full thirty days, judging from the business that is on hand to be disposed of. In fact, the greater part of the ground over which the Fourth Session traveled must be gone over again, owing to the fact that the penitentiary bill failed to pass. Governor Moody indicated that while the House is hearing the Terrell case, he will campaign for his penitentiary measure.

The House and Senate have the habit of determining their own course in the passage of bills. Once either branch of the legislature passes by a substantial majority any kind of a bill, and the other branch refuses to meet the ideas of the other body, this bill is dead, although both may have a very great desire to pass legislation on the subject. The Senate, by a substantial majority, agreed to the administration penitentiary bill. The House, by a larger majority, voted against the Austin plan, or the one approved by the Governor. With this condition existing, it is little wonder that the penitentiary question failed, and that the Governor is resubmitting the question to the Fifth Called Session. Just what the result will be, no one knows. Will the House have a change of heart and pass the Governor's bill? That is the big question, and it is almost a safe guess to answer positively in the negative.

Is Governor Dan Moody running for Governor for a third term? Another moot question. Newspaper correspondents who live in Austin predicted that last year when the regular session of the legislature opened that the Governor was seeking an excuse to run for a third term.

When the legislature convened in the Fourth Called Session, prediction was that the Governor was hoping that the excuse would be found, as it was pretty well established that the legislature would not pass a penitentiary bill to the liking of the chief executive.

When the House definitely rejected the Moody plan to concentrate the penitentiary plant within a few miles of Austin, it was stated by those who were keeping in close touch with Austin affairs that the Governor had been furnished a platform on which to make the third campaign. Will the Fifth Called Session solve the problem, and keep Moody out of the campaign? We shall see.

Are the people of Texas sufficiently interested in the removal of the penitentiary system from present site to elect a legislature Moody for the third term, and at the same time elect a legislature which shall do his bidding?

Governor Moody states that thousands of people have appealed to him to do something for the penitentiary system. He believes that he is doing the bidding of thousands of people in making the demand that the centralization plan be carried out at a point near the seat of government. What will the average voter think about several millions of dollars to go toward a new penitentiary system? Will the voter place the penitentiary problem above that of every other question in the state, or will he refuse to become unduly alarmed and want to go a little slower in making steps toward the solution of a problem which has been bothering the state for fifty years.

It is a well known fact that Moody stands alone among all of the proposed candidates on the removal of the penitentiary system to Austin. It is well defined as the Moody plan, in opposition to the thought of every other announced candidate. Barry Miller, Jim Ferguson and Earle B. Mayfield have denounced the proposal. Tom Love voted for the Moody plan, but showed no particular enthusiasm.

With all of the speculation regarding Moody's future plans, his closest political friends and advisers profess to know nothing regarding his plans. One man who is close to the Moody throne states positively that the Governor will not seek another term. Another lieutenant of the Governor states that he has told the Governor he could not be elected for a third term, and that it would be folly to attempt such a thing. Thus it is seen that although those on the outside think they know a lot, those on the inside claim that they know nothing for sure as to the Governor's plans.

In the meanwhile the weather is warming up, and the prospects are bright for a hard, bitter political campaign in Texas this summer.

And Jim Ferguson has definitely decided to get into the political game and run for governor.

Release of his announcement was set for today, although the former governor intimated to close friends only a few days ago that he would rather support some candidate to his liking rather than make the campaign himself.

Jim Ferguson is a real spellbinder when it comes to a statewide campaign. He has a method all of his own in meeting the voters, and discussing with them the questions regarding the welfare of the state.

It was predicted that little would be accomplished by the Fourth Called Session owing to the methods employed by the Governor in limiting the session in bills to be considered. Before the end of the session, the flood gates were opened, and a large number of bills on various subjects were introduced. Only local bills succeeded in getting through both houses. The fee bill passed will prove of benefit to the state, but is looked upon with suspicion by the county officers.

The Senate refused to pass the sulphur tax, which was the only revenue raising measure sent over by the House.

The Governor has stated definitely that no appropriations will be approved until more money is raised. The sulphur tax will likely get by the Senate in the Fifth Called Session.

Heads of educational institutions and of state departments are very much troubled as to the outcome of the Fifth Called Session. Unless something is accomplished the departments of state are going to suffer to a greater measure than they ever have in the past.

Your electric light bulbs will have an extra sparkle if, when cleaning them, you will use ammonia in the water.

P.P.H.S. MAKES ALL PLANS FOR ANNUAL MEET

SESSION OF SOCIETY TO BE DIVIDED INTO THREE PARTS: LUNCHEON BANQUET AND BUSINESS.

The program committee of the Panhandle Plains Historical Society has completed the tentative plans for the annual meeting of the organization which will take place on April 11.

Among the officers of the Society who expect to be present at the meeting are Mr. T. D. Hobart of Pampa, Mrs. Olive K. Dixon and Judge L. Gough, of Amarillo. Members from as great distance as Fort Worth are planning to come.

The sessions of the society will be divided into three parts; the chapel period will be used to introduce a few of the prominent members of the historical society to the students and the out of town guests will be equally interested in the meeting of the students; it is expected that Judge L. S. Kinder of Plainview will be the principal speaker at this time.

An old time program, for members and their guests is being planned for the lunch hour with Professor L. F. Shelly in charge.

A service of appreciation of the lives of Colonel C. C. Goodnight and Judge Thomas F. Turner, first president of the society, will be held at two o'clock with Mr. Horace Russell of Amarillo in charge, and with Mr. T. D. Hobart, and Mr. G. A. F. Parker of Hereford as speakers.

The business meeting promises many surprises for those who attend. Officers will be elected at this time.

The banquet, which closes the annual meeting of the Historical Society, is always one of the most interesting events of the year. The 1930 banquet will have as features cowboy songs, sung by a real cowboy, distinctive decorations, and the introduction of interesting people.

J. Evetts Haley, who is on leave of absence from his position as Field Secretary of the Society, is expected to be the principal speaker at the banquet; he will give an interpretation of the life of Colonel Goodnight.

The meeting will bring 200 or more visitors from every part of the Panhandle to spend at least one day as guests of the College.

The same folks who were hoping that Lindy would make some fool break that would give them a chance to throw mud at him are the ones that are now chucking because it looks as if Admiral Byrd would be stuck in the Antarctic ice for another year. There is a perversity about unsuccessful people which makes them hate success and gloat over the misfortunes of those whom the rest of the world respects, and this perversity is too often reflected in the sensational newspapers.

Support of Orphan Indian is Assured By Girl Reserves

Girl Reserves in Canyon have taken it upon themselves to help clothe and support an orphan Indian baby which has been left in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Reifsnider, missionaries in the wilds of Peru. South America. Mrs. Reifsnider was formerly Viola Williams, of Plainview, and took her B. A. degree from W. T. S. T. C. in June, 1928.

In a letter to Miss Mary Moss Richardson last week, Mrs. Reifsnider tells of the death of the baby's mother, and of it being turned over to the care of the mission. She says in part: "They said that if we wanted it, we could have it; but if we didn't want it, they would kill it and bury it with the mother, for they were going back to their old home up-country, and since they had no milk they could not take care of the baby. Of course we could not let them kill it; so my husband and I have taken it to care for the best we can."

"The poor little thing is hard up for clothing. I took one of my sheets and made it some. It doth not yet appear what he will wear. And he will need bottles, and everything else that babies use. I am not very well educated along that line, but I can learn."

"I wonder if the comrades in Canyon would like to help out some with his support? If so I am sure the lord would bless them in doing it, and we would appreciate it very much."

In answer to this plea, the Girl Reserves have already begun making clothes, and are preparing a box to help furnish the things needed by this little baby across the Isthmus.

An insurance writer in discussing his work recently, told of a happy phrase he had hit upon in answer to a common objection to taking life insurance.

"Most men," says the agent, "will agree that life insurance is all right but say they can not afford to carry much on their salary."

"When a prospect tells me that he can't afford any more life insurance on his salary, I say, 'Well, suppose you didn't have any salary?'"

"What do you mean?"
"I mean just what I say. Suppose your firm posted a notice in the factory that pay day had been definitely postponed and that no further salaries would be paid until further notice, what would you do?"

"Do? Why, I'd be sunk, that's all."

"Well, that's just the point I'm trying to bring out. If you should die tonight, your salary would stop, that's sure. You don't expect your wife to get along without your salary now, so how do you figure she is going to do it if you should pass away?"—Ex.

Brady Case Climaxes and Ends History of Travis Court House

Austin, Tex.—Travis county's dilapidated court house quatered its last "big case" when the John W. Brady murder trial was finished, for it soon is to fall into the hands of the wreckers.

Its passing will obliterate the scene of events which have made Texas history, and will cause regret among those who visited it most, despite its unsightliness and limited accommodations.

Battles for life and millions have been fought beneath its roof; attorneys who became governors, senators and cabinet members practiced law in the two court rooms on its second floor; luminaries involved in the biggest lawsuits in the state's history have testified from the witness stand in the "big court room."

Travis county is preparing to erect a new court house, modern, which in years to come perhaps will be the scene of more "big cases."

Fifty years ago the state donated the county a lease on the half block at the foot of Capitol Hill and at the head of Congress avenue, for a court house. In as much as the state filed most of its lawsuits in the county, it felt some obligation to it.

The commissioners' court built a 2½-story court house building of white limestone blocks, a jail building on the other end of the lot which looks like a French fort, and a sheriff's house between the two where the sheriff and his family live. A high wall surrounds the jail building, and bloodhounds roam around inside them to prevent the escape of prisoners.

All of them will be demolished. A stately elm in the yard between the court house and sheriff's house which, pioneers say, is seventy-five years old, must come down, too.

Outside a barred window of the jail building is a peach tree nearly forty years old, which still bears fruit, and therein lies a tale.

This said that Gib Gay, a pioneer cattle driver of Hays county, which adjoins Travis county on the south, planted it there while a prisoner in the jail. Gay was twice convicted of murder and twice his case was reversed because the "corpus delicti"—the body of the man he is alleged to have killed—had not been produced. Gay finally won his freedom after spending seven years in jail, about five of which were spent in the Travis county jail.

He was fond of peaches and relatives brought them to his while he was a prisoner. He tossed the seeds out of the window, inadvertently planted the tree, and stayed in jail long enough to eat fruit from it.

Down through the years, more famous cases came along, among them many civil cases which attracted state-wide interest. Many of the oil, lumber and insurance anti-trust law cases resulting from legislation passed during the halcyon days of "trust-busting" politicians, were tried in the Travis county district court.

Most famous of all, however, was the Rev. J. Frank Norris murder case, which was perhaps one of the first half dozen in American history in public interest. Judge James R. Hamilton, now a member of the pardon board, heard the case during his final term on the bench.

All of the major cases are tried in what is known as the "big court room," which will seat approximately 500 persons. The "little court room," which has limited seating accommodations, is used for minor civil cases.

Cracks have opened in the green plastered walls, and the building leaks in many places. Insects are a periodical blight to court house officials and employees. Black bats, ill omens of witchcraft, occasionally fly out of the attic and create uneasiness to a person on trial who might be superstitious.

Tradition is a mighty force, but Travis county people want a new court house that will create a better impression of the city of Austin in the minds of visitors to the state capital.

What Will you do

When your Children Cry for It

There is hardly a household that hasn't heard of Castoria! At least five million homes are never without it. If there are children in your family, there's almost daily need of its comfort. And any night may find you very thankful there's a bottle in the house. Just a few drops, and that colic or constipation is relieved; or diarrhea checked. A vegetable product; a baby remedy meant for young folks. Castoria is about the only thing you have ever heard doctors advise giving to infants. Stronger medicines are dangerous to a tiny baby, however harmless they may be to grown-ups. Good old Castoria! Remember the name, and remember to buy it. It may spare you a sleepless, anxious night. It is always ready, always safe to use; in emergencies, or for everyday ailments. Any hour of the day or night that Baby becomes fretful, or restless. Castoria was never more popular with mothers than it is today. Every druggist has it.

the Call that came at Midnight

An icy gust of February wind eddied down the dark stairway, rustled the pages of the telephone book on the landing, and sent its chill breath easily through Robert McBain's thin pajamas.

McBain glared angrily into the telephone, shivered, sneezed. "Listen!" he interrupted impatiently, "there's really not much we can do about it until morning, is there? Suppose you see me then!"

He rattled the receiver on the hook and plodded back upstairs to the bedroom.

"Calling me at midnight!" he snapped. "That's nerve for you. And . . . and now . . ."

Warning twitches assailed his nostrils and again . . . he sneezed!

" . . . and now," he finished wearily, "I guess I'll nurse a cold for the rest of the winter."

Beneath comfortable covers, his wife stirred sympathetically.

"I've always said," she began drowsily, "that we needed a . . ."

"Yes, I know!" broke in her husband. "An extension telephone in here. And mark my word, tomorrow we'll have one, right beside this bed!"

Telephones where you need them save time, patience, inconvenience — sometimes, strange as it may seem, prevent colds.

Few know that the extra cost of one or two "extensions" is somewhat less than that of the single telephone they now have.

By a wisely-placed "extension" or two, and perhaps a rearrangement of the equipment you already have, an expert telephone man can often double the convenience of the telephones in your home.

Manager, Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., City.

Twenty-five ladies attended the club meeting at Mrs. Merle McGehee's Monday afternoon. The weather was ideal. Everyone enjoyed the time. After a business session, delicious candy was served. Mrs. C. F. Watson lies very sick in St. Anthony's hospital, Amarillo. A week ago Mrs. Watson submitted to a serious operation. A number of her friends have visited her. They report her as doing as well as could be expected. Mrs. Geneva Brooks, her daughter, and little son, of Freeport, Texas, are with her and will make an extended visit. Mr. Watson and son also are with her.

Wilma Beth, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Aiken, died February 9, at the age of only a few hours. We extend sympathy to the bereaved parents in the loss of their first born. The infant was buried at Wayside, the services being conducted by Rev. H. A. Smith of Happy.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Willhelm, former Waysiders, now of Amarillo, came down last week, returning Saturday, and came back once more Monday. Mr. Willhelm is sowing barley. Mrs. Willhelm is visiting among friends, both spending the night last week with J. E. McGehee and wife, and Monday night at the Lane home.

Jack Howard, who has been sojourning in different parts of Texas and California for some months past, reached home Sunday.

B. F. Willhelm and wife, W. I. Lane and wife, attended Stamps Quartet at Sunny Hill Monday night.

Mr. Scott Laycock and wife, with Miss Cope, Wayside teachers, attended the Passion Play in Amarillo Friday night.

J. M. McGehee from Gallegos, N. M., came to Wayside a week ago. His trouble, erysipelas of the face, is much better, but not entirely well. He has a number of relatives around Wayside, who were much pleased to have him visit them.

The Valentine party Friday night at the school auditorium sponsored by the Home Demonstration Club, was well attended. Messrs. F. Walters, Fletcher Rogers and Alden Mann and their wives represented Happy, possibly others. Refreshments were served to thirty couples, after which the greater part of the crowd resolved itself into a forty-two party. Receipts were $16.00, going to the treasury of the club.

Umbarger Items

Non-fiction is steadily gaining. In philosophy, biography, art and science, the "chatty" superficial book is no longer good enough. The reader questions what five years ago he accepted.

She—We have been married a week and you come home as late as this.

He—Yes, my dear, it took me all that time to tell the fellows at the club how happy I am.

RUPTURE EXPERT HERE
C. F. Redlich, Minneapolis, Minn., nationally famous Rupture Appliance Expert, will demonstrate without charge his unequalled method at Amarillo on Saturday, Feb. 22, at the Amarillo Hotel, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Mr. C. F. Redlich says: The "Perfect Retention Shields" hold the rupture perfectly, no matter what position the body assumes or heavy a weight you lift. They give instant relief and contract the opening in a remarkably short time.

The secret of their success is in their simplicity. An expertly adjusted device seals the opening without discomfort or detention from work. It is practically everlasting, sanitary, comfortable and actually holds ruptures which heretofore were considered uncontrollable.

"IF YOU WANT TO HAVE IT DONE RIGHT, SEE REDLICH." Doctor J. W. Seaver, for many years in charge of the Physical Education of the students of Yale College, has recorded 75% cures with this system.

Mr. Redlich is internationally known and speaks English, German and Spanish.

Rev. Hubert Thompson of Canyon will fill his second appointment at this place Sunday after Sunday school, which begins at 2:30. Come and bring your friends.

The pupils and teachers of this school gave a Valentine party at the school house Friday night for the entertainment of their parents and friends. More than fifty people were present.

About three or four hundred people attended the Plateau singing convention here Sunday. The weather favored the occasion. The bountiful, outdoor dinner was enjoyed by all. This was the fourth, and probably the best, convention ever held at this place.

Monday night the Stamps All Star quartet of Chattanooga, Tenn., rendered a splendid program, which was appreciated by a large audience. The following compose the quartet: Hughes of Alabama, first tenor; Long of Greenville, Texas, second tenor; Burgess of Arkansas, first base; P. Stamps of Tennessee, second bass; Brock of Tennessee, pianist.

Mrs. Moddie Golf is visiting in the home of her brother, Mr. D. W. Yates.

Mr. Charley Stallings has been ill for the past week. Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Castleberry are also on the sick list. We hope they will recover soon.

What Will you do

When your Children Cry for It

There is hardly a household that hasn't heard of Castoria! At least five million homes are never without it. If there are children in your family, there's almost daily need of its comfort. And any night may find you very thankful there's a bottle in the house. Just a few drops, and that colic or constipation is relieved; or diarrhea checked. A vegetable product; a baby remedy meant for young folks. Castoria is about the only thing you have ever heard doctors advise giving to infants. Stronger medicines are dangerous to a tiny baby, however harmless they may be to grown-ups. Good old Castoria! Remember the name, and remember to buy it. It may spare you a sleepless, anxious night. It is always ready, always safe to use; in emergencies, or for everyday ailments. Any hour of the day or night that Baby becomes fretful, or restless. Castoria was never more popular with mothers than it is today. Every druggist has it.

the Call that came at Midnight

An icy gust of February wind eddied down the dark stairway, rustled the pages of the telephone book on the landing, and sent its chill breath easily through Robert McBain's thin pajamas.

McBain glared angrily into the telephone, shivered, sneezed. "Listen!" he interrupted impatiently, "there's really not much we can do about it until morning, is there? Suppose you see me then!"

He rattled the receiver on the hook and plodded back upstairs to the bedroom.

"Calling me at midnight!" he snapped. "That's nerve for you. And . . . and now . . ."

Warning twitches assailed his nostrils and again . . . he sneezed!

" . . . and now," he finished wearily, "I guess I'll nurse a cold for the rest of the winter."

Beneath comfortable covers, his wife stirred sympathetically.

"I've always said," she began drowsily, "that we needed a . . ."

"Yes, I know!" broke in her husband. "An extension telephone in here. And mark my word, tomorrow we'll have one, right beside this bed!"

Telephones where you need them save time, patience, inconvenience—sometimes, strange as it may seem, prevent colds.

Few know that the extra cost of one or two "extensions" is somewhat less than that of the single telephone they now have.

By a wisely-placed "extension" or two, and perhaps a rearrangement of the equipment you already have, an expert telephone man can often double the convenience of the telephones in your home.

He rattled the receiver on the hook

"I Feel Fine in the Morning Now"

Amarillo Railroad Man Says His Troubles Are All Disappearing After Taking Orgatone (Argotane) and He Is Gaining Daily.

"I get up in the mornings now feeling like a 2-year-old, and I've gained in weight and strength since I started taking Orgatone (Argotane)," said L. D. Priest, when he was talking to the Orgatone (Argotane) representative. Mr. Priest, who lives at 2109 Roberts street, is in the railroad store department for the Santa Fe railroad, which position he had held for the past ten years.

"I suffered terribly for more than five years," he continued, "and got in an awfully run down condition. I got so I didn't want anything to eat and what little I did force down would cause me trouble from the gas that would form on my stomach. I would have smothering spells and a choking sensation in my chest, and I want to tell you this is real suffering. My kidneys bothered me a great deal, which made me very restless at night and I would get up in the morning feeling so tired and worn out I actually hated the thought of going to work, and when I did go out to the shops I would feel bad all day. I took everything I could find trying to get some relief, but I just got worse and worse and there's no telling what would have become of me if it hadn't been for Orgatone (Argotane)."

"I heard a lot about what this Orgatone (Argotane) was doing and read so much in the papers where people all over Amarillo were being helped by it that I decided it might do me some good, and I tell you it was the best day's work I've done in a long time when I started taking Orgatone (Argotane) for I'm a well man now and my nerves are as steady as a steam engine. I can eat anything I want without a bit of suffering and I enjoy every mouthful. I noticed before I had finished the first bottle my appetite was improving and now after taking four bottles of it, it seems like I can't get enough to eat. It sure is a fine feeling to sit down to a good dinner, like I do now and know you can eat everything on the table and not have any trouble afterwards. And sleep, why I never wake up until time to get up and go to work and when I start out I feel as fine and full of life as a boy going hunting with a gun."

"Yes, sir, this Orgatone (Argotane) has got me feeling like my old self again, and I know it's the right medicine for me. Everybody I know asked me what's making me look so much better and I don't lose any time telling 'em 'Orgatone (Argotane),' and I'm glad to tell you about it, so you can publish it and let other suffering people know what Orgatone (Argotane) has done for me."

Genuine Orgatone (Argotane) may be bought in Canyon at the Jarrett Drug Store.

News in Canyon 25 Years Ago

(From the files of the Canyon City News, February 24, 1905.)

Postmaster Cobb and wife are just getting up from a severe spell of grip.

W. H. Hicks and Dr. Stewart have purchased the Mack Leonard residence in the south part of town.

Sowing of considerable spring wheat is being talked of.

Our hardware houses are getting in large piles of agriculture implements.

W. B. Walters and family left Tuesday for Iowa Park, their future home. Mr. Walters owns property here. His section near Ceta is rented this year to T. A. Ridgway.

Monday, Henry Bradford purchased the C. W. Word place of two sections near Happy, including stock and feed. Mr. Word will move temporarily to Amarillo.

Last Friday Mr. H. B. Great-house lost his youngest child, about two weeks old, by pneumonia. It was buried Saturday in the cemetery south of town.

The new telephone company has purchased the lot on the public square north of Judge Buie's office and will make it headquarters instead of back of the bank, as first planned.

USED OIL

We have a quantity of drained crank case oil which has been stored in clean 55-gallon drums. We are offering this oil, including the drum, at $5.00. There are many uses for this oil, such as for hog dip, lubricating farm machinery, cooking and heating. We use this same class of oil in our own plant for heating our hot water system, and hardly anyone can afford to pass up this bargain.

If you are NOT yourself

Are you being denied the happiness that is due you in life?

It is easy to abuse our golden life-given body, but Nature has a way of signaling danger. If heeded, graver troubles may be avoided. That tired, exhausted feeling, lack of appetite, aches and pains, flabby flesh, skin troubles—all speak of a body weakness—a lack of the normal count of red-blood-cells.

Every normal person's blood should contain about 5,000,000 red corpuscles to the cubic millimeter—those vitalizing, tiny red-cells which give blood its color and are carriers of nourishment to every part of the body. It is dangerous to let the red blood count remain below normal.

With an increase in the red-blood-cells, you will be on the right road to Health. This is Nature's way to body power and to clear skin. Naturally, with your strength restored, it is easier to fight disease and infection; to enjoy your food and to sleep soundly. When firm flesh takes the place of that which was once flabby, you will feel strong—your nerves will become steady—more happiness and friends will follow.

S.S.S. has been a blessing to millions of people. It helps Nature increase the red-blood-cells. It promotes healthy body building. It is time-tested and has a successful record of over 100 years back of it.

You owe it to yourself to try S.S.S. It is easily assimilated. Pleasant to take. It is on sale at all drug stores in two sizes. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical. © S.S.S. Co.

That tired, exhausted feeling, lack of appetite, aches and pains, flabby flesh, skin troubles—all speak of a body weakness—a lack of the normal count of red-blood-cells.

Every normal person's blood should contain about 5,000,000 red corpuscles to the cubic millimeter—those vitalizing, tiny red-cells which give blood its color and are carriers of nourishment to every part of the body. It is dangerous to let the red blood count remain below normal.

With an increase in the red-blood-cells, you will be on the right road to Health. This is Nature's way to body power and to clear skin. Naturally, with your strength restored, it is easier to fight disease and infection; to enjoy your food and to sleep soundly. When firm flesh takes the place of that which was once flabby, you will feel strong—your nerves will become steady—more happiness and friends will follow.

S.S.S. has been a blessing to millions of people. It helps Nature increase the red-blood-cells. It promotes healthy body building. It is time-tested and has a successful record of over 100 years back of it.

You owe it to yourself to try S.S.S. It is easily assimilated. Pleasant to take. It is on sale at all drug stores in two sizes. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical. © S.S.S. Co.

Health Nurse Plans Visit to County Schools

Arrangements are being made for the Red Cross nurse, Miss Ridley, to meet with the teachers of this county next Saturday at the court house. Some of the important things she is anxious to confer upon with them are: In arranging her program for her work in each school, and in making plans for carrying on this work.

The amount of time given each school will be determined by the number of children of scholastic age attending each school; and she is anxious that she learn from each teacher just when she will be wanted, so that a program may be planned that will save all the time possible and at the same time do thorough work.

So far, very few of the schools have reported that they are ready and have arranged for this service.

The patrons of the schools are urged to confer with the teachers in presenting their wishes at the meeting Saturday.

Miss Ridley will be found at the court house, county judge's office, every Saturday, to confer with anyone in planning this work for Randall county and it is her desire that no child in this county be neglected.

The work is progressing nicely.

in Canyon grade school and the work is being expedited by the room mothers' assistance and any patron is invited to visit and see the work done.

Work With Crippled Children Brought to Canyon Rotary Club

Rotarians heard an interesting story Tuesday of the work being done by the service clubs in Amarillo for the crippled children of this territory. The work was started two years ago as a project of the Lions Club. The importance of the work was at once recognized by the three other service clubs of that city, and arrangements made for all of the clubs to enter into the activity. During this time, 80 children have been operated upon, many of whom have been fully restored to good health and normal bodies. The sum of $12,000 has been raised for the work, which is not enough to take care of all of the children who seek aid.

Judge Perry S. Pearson presided for the Amarillo delegation in presenting the work to the local Rotary Club. He considered it a good omen when active business men find it in their hearts to take the time and donate their money to putting over such a worthy cause as caring for the crippled children.

When the work was first undertaken, the Lions Club was greatly surprised to find so many children who needed help which their parents could not give.

A noted physician in Oklahoma City is donating his time to this work. The Rock Island railway gives free transportation to the children and the nurse in charge. There is no distinction in race, color, or religion, in extending aid to the crippled children. There are now nearly fifty children on the waiting list, who seek aid. The work has been extended to all parts of the Panhandle, and for this reason there should be a Panhandle-wide movement to sponsor the work and to provide a hospital or home for the children.

Miss Medora Duncan, nurse in charge, made a detailed report of the work. Most remarkable results have been obtained by the physicians. Amarillo physicians have offered their services, but the operations are performed in Oklahoma City, where the only children's hospital in the Southwest is located. Miss Duncan presented Mary Buntin, 9 years, and Volley Ray Rutledge, 3 years, as examples of the work being done for the children.

A. E. Meyer, president of the Lions Club, and Larry Perree, representing the Amarillo Rotary Club, made short talks.

Visitors present at the luncheon were: Wilbur C. Hawk, H. L. Kearns, Ben Anderson, E. J. McCarrt, C. Don Hughes, Larry Perree, Frank Clowe, P. E. Bennett, H. A. Noble, G. C. Noble, W. J. Flesher, Perry S. Pearson, John F. Canterbury, Ralph Keniston, A. E. Meyer, and Miss Duncan.

Kansas Man Makes Gift to Society Museum

The Panhandle-Plains Historical Society museum continues to mirror the interest of the people in the work which is being done to preserve the record of the pioneer life of the great region known as the Southwest.

Among the interesting collections recently received is that sent by M. H. Loy, of Barnard, Kan. Mr. Loy is a member of the Historical Society, and the story of the relics he sent is the story of the westward movement in the United States.

An old copper kettle, a rare example of the coppersmith's art, shows that it was made when fireplaces were used for cooking; it was made in Colonial days, carried across the mountains to Tennessee, thence to Ohio in 1806, thence to Iowa in 1852, then to Kansas in 1874, and finally to its resting place in Canyon in 1930. When the kettle made its journey to Kansas it was part of the possessions of a wagon train party, made up of a father 72 years old, and his family of twelve living children and their families.

With the copper kettle Mr. Loy sent a collection of books, including an Edinburgh Bible which was published about 1775; a Bible bearing the date 1817, and another 1869. These Bibles are valuable additions to the growing collection of these which the Historical Society now has.

A Sanders fourth reader, published in 1852, is interesting because of the great difference between it and readers in use at the present time.

The Loy collection is greatly increased in value by a history of each object, which Mr. Loy included with the collection.

Many Museum Relics in Panhandle. B. B. Cole of Tulsa has recently given to the society a churn which was bought in 1865 or 1866 and which was used constantly until the last few years. This will prove a valuable piece of furnishing when a kitchen of a pioneer western home is equipped by the society. It is hoped that other furnishings, such as chairs, quilts, dishes, and all the other equipment of the old-time home will come to the museum in time.

Other valuable donations have recently been made by Floyd Studer of Amarillo. These things are archaeological specimens. By W. Mabry of Selma, Ala., who sent an original copy of a directory of Tascosa as it was in 1884; this is written in verse by Dr. Croft, a well known pioneer citizen of the Panhandle.

Many visitors constantly see the museum. Among those who have gone through it within the past year is the name of Marion Talley, the "Kansas Song Bird," who was in the Panhandle looking for material and acquainting herself with the history of the region.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY
The American Legion Auxiliary met Monday afternoon. Mrs. Clarence Thompson was elected president, and Miss Agnes Meyer first vice-president to succeed Mrs. H. O. Price as president and Mrs. R. E. Mrs. Clarence Thompson is in charge of reservations.

Mr. Lockhart has been connected with the College for nine years. He is head of the commercial department. His rank in the army service is captain, having served in the Ninth infantry of the regular army for twelve years.

He states that he has found everything in Company F in good condition. There are a few vacancies in the local company and Mr. Lockhart says that they will be glad to receive enlistments for those. Target practice has already begun and will continue through the spring and summer months. They expect to be ready for the federal inspection some time in April.

Mrs. Warner comes to Canyon under the auspices of the Woman's Book Club, which invites every person to hear her at the district court room at 3 o'clock.

Having been a member of the state board since its organization, Mrs. Warner is probably the best informed person in this region, so far as this subject is concerned. She is an attractive speaker, who has interested audiences all over the United States.

MARRIED SUNDAY IN CLOVIS

Miss Gladys Gentry and Mr. Bernard Loomer of Vega were married in Clovis Sunday by the Rev. J. F. Nix, pastor of the Clovis Baptist church. They were accompanied to Clovis by the bride's mother, Mrs. Kate Gentry, and her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Price.

Mrs. Loomer is the daughter of Mrs. Kate Gentry of this city and has lived here for several years. She attended High School and College here. Mr. Loomer lived in Canyon until recently and was employed by the Canyon Tailoring company. He is now manager of the Vega Tailoring company, and Mr. and Mrs. Loomer will make their home in Vega.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. M. S. Bishir was hostess to the Friday Afternoon Bridge Club at her home Friday afternoon. Bridge was played at four tables, after which a salad course was served. Guests were Mrs. H. F. P-P H S Receives Donation From Amarillo Man

The Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum has just received a valuable collection of specimens from Floyd Studer of Amarillo.

In the collection is a case of Phytosaur specimens, including ribs, coprolite, armor plate vertebrae and teeth. The Phytosaur was a great crocodile-like reptile, frequently twenty-five feet in length; scientists estimate that it lived 5,000,000 years ago.

A slab containing fossilized teeth of a dinosaur, another reptile of the Triassic age, is also included.

A piece of amber, formed thousands of years ago by the fossilization of a bit of resin, contains an insect so well preserved that it can almost be identified.

Raindrops which fell before man had appeared on the earth have left their imprints on specimens of Permian shale. With them are the footprints of small salamander-like animals of the type Erpetopus Millistoni and Microsaur Clorki.

Floyd Studer is an enthusiastic collector of archaeological and paleontological material, finding in this search and study recreation from his everyday office routine. He has many more specimens which will be deposited in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum when more display room is available.

Canyon People Present At Amarillo Banquet

Those attending from Canyon were: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. George, Ray V. Davis, A. E. Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robbins, Ray Robbins, L. F. Sheffy, Wallace Clark and Fred E. Wortham.

MISSIONARY MEETING

meeting was made up of those in Zone one, Plainview District.

BUFFALOES ARE T. I. A. CHAMPS

TECH TEAM TRIMS BUFFS BY 38-32 SCORE

T. I. A. A. CHAMPS BOW BEFORE LADS FROM LUBBOCK

Hodges for Matadors Gains High Point Honors for Evening; Teams Meet Tonight.

Falling before the onslaught of the Tech Matadors, the Buffaloes went down to defeat last night at Buff Gym by 38-32.

Leading before the starting whistle blew, Gerald retaliated to knot the count. He was followed by Fuller, who added another counter to take the lead. Led by Hodges, the Matadors started a rally and ran roughshod over the baffled Buffs to gain a 10-point lead that the Buffs could never overcome. Several rallies on the part of the Herd fell short of reaching the Tech score.

The game afforded a number of thrills for the crowd in attendance, which was one of the largest since the opening game at home. The Buffs looked good at times in the last period, but the failure of their defensive machine aided much in Tech's victory. Both teams played a purely man-to-man game.

Hodges for the visitors was high point man, with 18 points to his credit.

The Buffaloes will conclude the series of two games with the Tech Matadors tonight at the Buffalo Gym. This is a second series this year between the two teams, who have been strong opponents since the opening of the college at Lubbock several years ago.

After the game tonight, only three more games remain on the 1930 basketball schedule of the Buffaloes. The season will end Saturday night, March 1, when the Buffaloes mix with the New Mexico Military Institute at Buffalo Gym.

The Buffs have lost, prior to the Tech series, only four games out of seventeen played. They have dropped only one conference game and that was by the narrow margin of one point. The other three games were carried away by the Phillips "66" team and the Simmons Cowboys. The Cowboys have always been a thorn in the side of the West Texas boys, and the Phillips bunch are classed as professional players in every respect.

Coach Burton expresses himself that he believes the present Cowboy team of Simmons is the most powerful basketball team in the state, regardless of the class. He says that McCollum, the boy who accounted for twenty points in the Cowboy win last Friday night, is the best forward he has ever seen in a college uniform. In the estimation of Coach Burton, he ranks among professional players.

The Buffs have been victorious in nine of the ten conference games and have been the winners in nine of the games played away from home. This gives them a conference average and a road trip average of .900.

Next week fans will see five men on the Herd squad finish the season and play the last time in a Buffalo uniform. These men, Capt. Red Keith, a four year athlete who has made the teams of all major sports at the College; Pat Gerald, a T. I. A. A. guard and an all-around athlete; Ward, an outstanding guard of all time, and Jones, forward.

The concluding games of this season promise to give the Canyon fans and supporters of the Buffaloes the most so far this season. These few remaining games will no doubt be some of the most interesting played this season at the local Gym.

The old George Washington press which has been a part of the News equipment since The Stayer was started in 1893, has been donated to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society and will be removed to the College in a few days when a new proof press arrives to take its place in the equipment of the plant.

Old Press Donated to Panhandle-Plains Historical Society

The old George Washington press which has been a part of the News equipment since The Stayer was started in 1893, has been donated to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society and will be removed to the College in a few days when a new proof press arrives to take its place in the equipment of the plant.

The old George Wash. is probably the only one left in the Panhandle. Its style is no longer manufactured, although there is a demand for this press by the engraving houses. The News was offered more than its original cost for the press, but chose to donate it to the Historical Society owing to the fact that it is the sole survivor of the early type of newspaper presses.

This old press was brought to the Plains in the early 80's. It was used to print weekly newspapers in a number of towns on the Plains but finally arrived in Canyon. Most newspapers discarded their old George Washington presses as they improved in plant facilities, but this one was retained by the News for use as a proof press. Printers who learned the trade during recent years were greatly mystified to see this old style press in the News office, many of the younger generation never having seen a press of this type.

The Panhandle-Plains Historical Society has gathered the largest collection of relics representing the early history of this section that may be found any place in Texas. There is no room at the College at the present time to properly display these relics. Hundreds of people have made donations and loans to the Society until the collection is priceless in value. There is great need of a large building to adequately house and display this great collection. At the meeting of the Historical Society last spring, a committee was named, headed by Judge H. E. Hoover of Canadian, to start work on the collection of funds for such a museum. It is hoped that at the meeting of the society in April, definite steps will be taken toward the erection of the building.

S. H. Condron was in Clarendon Friday attending to business.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McElroy visited in Tulla with friends Sunday.

"Buffs" Add Another Game To Schedule

An additional game has been listed on the 1930 Buff basketball schedule, according to an announcement made by Coach S. D. Burton. A game between the Herd and the team of Oklahoma Panhandle A. & M. will be played at Buffalo Gym, Tuesday, February 25.

This game will be the second additional game to be played after the 1930 schedule was first announced. The other game was with the Phillips "66" team from Bartlesville, Okla.

This game promises to give local fans an opportunity to see a good game as the Panhandle boys have offered strong competition to the other teams they have played so far this season.

Following the game next Tuesday night the Herd will close the season at home with two games with the New Mexico Military quintet Friday and Saturday nights.

Large Audience at Lecture on Christian Science Sunday

The lecture on Christian Science at the Olympic Theatre Sunday evening was attended by a very large and appreciative audience. Marion Higdon presented the speaker in a short introduction as follows:

In speaking of the needs of human beings, Jesus said in Matt. 6:33, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." In the hurry-scurry of present day existence, we forget to rely on the ever-present, all-powerful God for our needs. Jesus proved this ever-present power by his many demonstrations. But in order to be eligible for this ever-present help, we must live a clean life in imitation of the true Christ as much as possible. We cannot expect to receive benefits from a source we do not serve.

Mary Baker Eddy, the discoverer of Christian Science, says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," p. 494, "Divine Love always has met and always will meet every human need." This carries the same thought that is conveyed in the verse that I quoted from the Bible. The speaker of the evening will tell you how to progress in the understanding of this wonderful Truth. His subject is "Footsteps and Stepping-Stones in Christian Science."

It is my privilege to present Professor Hermann S. Hering of Boston, Massachusetts. Member of The Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston, Massachusetts.

The following is an outline of his address:

Many of the stepping-stones are those taken in all Christian experience, with the additional actual demonstration which Christian Science makes possible, as proof of the correctness of its teachings and as expected by the Master of all his followers.

Among other requirements, the lecturer emphasized the value of many Christian virtues, including gratitude, humility, obedience, faith. He also enumerated many of the cardinal teachings of this new-old religion regarding God, Christ Jesus, man; and he made clear the distinction drawn by Christian Science between the real or spiritual and the unreal or material.

Professor Hering showed that an important stepping-stone is to see and understand that Christian Science healing is accomplished when divine Truth corrects human error. He showed that human misery is healed scientifically by knowing divine Truth, becoming conscious of its presence, and then recognizing human discord as illusion or error, thereby displacing it in consciousness by truth.

Throughout the entire lecture, Professor Hering pointed out the necessity of dependence upon something above the material, upon a higher power for guidance, support and healing, explaining and illustrating in a practical manner the uncertainty of the testimony of the physical senses and the unreality of the material. He stated that not one of the physical senses testifies to absolute Truth; that Truth is not perceived through the physical senses, but solely through understanding; and he quoted frequently from the Bible and from the writings of Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, in support of the statements he made.

There were 47,772 retail stores in business in Texas in 1929. Groceries were 13,620, and auto accessories (including tires, etc.) were second with 6,488.

Texas has 242 creameries. Practically all of them have been built within the past five years, most of them in the last two years.

In spite of the short cotton crop and a lower price, Texas' agricultural production for 1929 was valued by the United States department of agriculture at $615,351,000, again giving it first place among the states.

Texas improvement projects in 1930, public and private, are estimated at from $450,000,000 to $500,000,000.

"I Should Have Used Konjola Long Before"

St. Louis Man Suffered Eight Years—Relates Experience With New Medicine.

"I should have used Konjola years before," said Mr. Albert Smythe, 2618 Rutger street, St. Louis. "For eight years I suffered with my stomach and kidneys until I became almost a physical wreck. The simplest foods bloated me until I could scarcely breathe."

My back ached and pained me from my shoulders to my waist and sleep was impossible for any length of time. I grew steadily weaker and was on the verge of giving up my work.

"A friend who had been benefited by this great medicine, urged me to try Konjola. I was transformed from a semi-invalid into a well and happy man in just six weeks. To day I eat what I wish without discomfort of any kind. I never bloat following meals and my appetite is excellent. The pains have left my back entirely and the frequent bladder actions which disturbed my sleep are a thing of the past. I urge every sufferer to take Konjola."

Konjola is sold in Canyon at Jarret Drug Co., and by all the best druggist in all towns throughout this entire section.

LIFE

With all the talk about the increased average increase of human life, the age of seventy still remains the normal limit for the human being. So Dr. Louis Dublin, medical head of one of the great insurance companies, reports. Only exceptional individuals live beyond 70, and in America the proportion who die between 65 and 70 is increasing. Yet the average American lives longer than those of his father's generation did, much longer than in his grandfather's time. That is because the illnesses which used to kill off babies, children and young people of both sexes are not so prevalent as formerly.

Every American baby born today has a reasonable chance of living to be 55, which is the average length of life in this country, as against 43 in most of Europe. But the man who reaches 55 cannot count on more than fifteen years more of life with any degree of certainty, and the chances are that he will pass on in ten years.

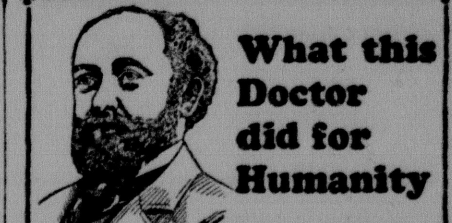

KNOW TEXAS

Oil investments in Texas, estimated at $1,500,000,000, represent one-seventh of the United States total. Texas average monthly production during six months ending October 1 was 21,000,000 barrels.

The new "baby" automobiles promised for next summer will be only five feet from the ground with the top up, it is reported. Not low enough. What this country needs is a car that can run under a 10-ton truck that is hogging the road.

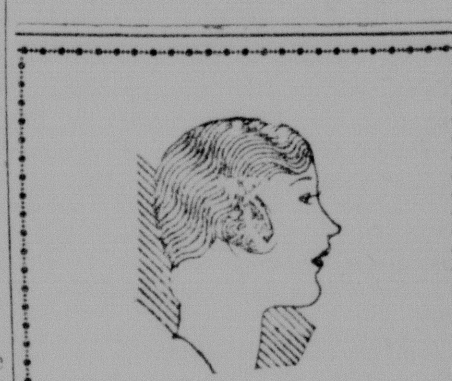

Never want to see if a headache will "wear off." Why suffer when there's Bayer Aspirin? The many millions of men and women who use it in increasing quantities every year prove that it does relieve such pain. And as surely relieves that of neuralgia; neuritis; even rheumatism. Doctors declare genuine Aspirin (with the Bayer Cross on every box and tablet) does not affect the heart. Any drugstore.

What this Doctor did for Humanity
As a young man the late Dr. R. V. Pierce, practiced medicine in Pennsylvania and was known far and near for his great success in alleviating disease. Finally he moved to Buffalo, N. Y., and put up in ready-to-use form, his GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY, the well-known tonic for the blood. This strength builder is made from a formula which Dr. Pierce found most effective when in private practice. It aids digestion, acts as a tonic and enriches the blood—clears away pimples and annoying eruptions and tends to keep the complexion fresh and clear. All druggists. Tablets or liquid.

Mrs. I. W. Huber and daughter, Miss Cecil, are in Clayton, N. M., where they are employed. They have been there about two weeks.

We cannot expect to receive benefits from a source we do not serve.

Mary Baker Eddy, the discoverer of Christian Science, says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," p. 494, "Divine Love always has met and always will meet every human need." This carries the same thought that is conveyed in the verse that I quoted from the Bible. The speaker of the evening will tell you how to progress in the understanding of this wonderful Truth. His subject is "Footsteps and Stepping-Stones in Christian Science."

It is my privilege to present Professor Hermann S. Hering of Boston, Massachusetts. Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston, Massachusetts.

The following is an outline of his address:

Many of the stepping-stones are those taken in all Christian experience, with the additional actual demonstration which Christian Science makes possible, as proof of the correctness of its teachings and as expected by the Master of all his followers.

Among other requirements, the lecturer emphasized the value of many Christian virtues, including gratitude, humility, obedience, faith. He also enumerated many of the cardinal teachings of the new-old religion regarding God, Christ Jesus, man; and he made clear the distinction drawn by Christian Science between the real or spiritual and the unreal or material.

Professor Hering showed that an important stepping-stone is to see and understand that Christian Science healing is accomplished when divine Truth corrects human error. He showed that human misery is healed scientifically by knowing divine Truth, becoming conscious of its presence, and then recognizing human discord as illusion or error, thereby displacing it in consciousness by truth.

Throughout the entire lecture, Professor Hering pointed out the necessity of dependence upon something above the material, upon a higher power for guidance, support and healing, explaining and illustrating in a practical manner the uncertainty of the testimony of the physical senses and the unreality of the material. He stated that not one of the physical senses testifies to absolute Truth; that Truth is not perceived through the physical senses, but solely through understanding; and he quoted frequently from the Bible and from the writings of Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, in support of the statements he made.

There were 47,772 retail stores in business in Texas in 1929. Groceries were 13,620, and auto accessories (including tires, etc.) were second with 6,488.

Texas has 242 creameries. Practically all of them have been built within the past five years, most of them in the last two years.

In spite of the short cotton crop and a lower price, Texas' agricultural production for 1929 was valued by the United States department of agriculture at $615,351,000, again giving it first place among the states.

Texas improvement projects in 1930, public and private, are estimated at from $450,000,000 to $500,000,000.

"I Should Have Used Konjola Long Before"

St. Louis Man Suffered Eight Years—Relates Experience With New Medicine.

"I should have used Konjola years before," said Mr. Albert Smythe, 2618 Rutger street, St. Louis. "For eight years I suffered with my stomach and kidneys until I became almost a physical wreck. The simplest foods bloated me until I could scarcely breathe.

My back ached and pained me from my shoulders to my waist and sleep was impossible for any length of time. I grew steadily weaker and was on the verge of giving up my work.

"A friend who had been benefited by this great medicine, urged me to try Konjola. I was transformed from a semi-invalid into a well and happy man in just six weeks. To day I eat what I wish without discomfort of any kind. I never bloat following meals and my appetite is excellent. The pains have left my back entirely and the frequent bladder actions which disturbed my sleep are a thing of the past. I urge every sufferer to take Konjola."

Konjola is sold in Canyon at Jarret Drug Co., and by all the best druggist in all towns throughout this entire section.

LIFE

With all the talk about the increased average increase of human life, the age of seventy still remains the normal limit for the human being. So Dr. Louis Dublin, medical head of one of the great insurance companies, reports. Only exceptional individuals live beyond 70, and in America the proportion who die between 65 and 70 is increasing. Yet the average American lives longer than those of his father's generation did, much longer than in his grandfather's time. That is because the illnesses which used to kill off babies, children and young people of both sexes are not so prevalent as formerly.

Every American baby born today has a reasonable chance of living to be 55, which is the average length of life in this country, as against 43 in most of Europe. But the man who reaches 55 cannot count on more than fifteen years more of life with any degree of certainty, and the chances are that he will pass on in ten years.

KNOW TEXAS

Oil investments in Texas, estimated at $1,500,000,000, represent one-seventh of the United States total. Texas average monthly production during six months ending October 1 was 21,000,000 barrels.

The new "baby" automobiles promised for next summer will be only five feet from the ground with the top up, it is reported. Not low enough. What this country needs is a car that can run under a 10-ton truck that is hogging the road.

Never want to see if a headache will "wear off." Why suffer when there's Bayer Aspirin? The many millions of men and women who use it in increasing quantities every year prove that it does relieve such pain. And as surely relieves that of neuralgia; neuritis; even rheumatism. Doctors declare genuine Aspirin (with the Bayer Cross on every box and tablet) does not affect the heart. Any drugstore.

What this Doctor did for Humanity

As a young man the late Dr. R. V. Pierce, practiced medicine in Pennsylvania and was known far and near for his great success in alleviating disease. Finally he moved to Buffalo, N. Y., and put up in ready-to-use form, his GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY, the well-known tonic for the blood. This strength builder is made from a formula which Dr. Pierce found most effective when in private practice. It aids digestion, acts as a tonic and enriches the blood—clears away pimples and annoying eruptions and tends to keep the complexion fresh and clear. All druggists. Tablets or liquid.

Mrs. I. W. Huber and daughter, Miss Cecil, are in Clayton, N. M., where they are employed. They have been there about two weeks.

AMARILLO SANDIES' DEFENSE FAILS TO KEEP THE EAGLES FROM LARGE END OF SCORE

Eagles Beat Sandies
By Score of 25-15

The Canyon Eagles took all the wind out of the Amarillo Golden Sandstorms Friday night to the tune of 25 to 15. From all indications Amarillo thought that the "man for man style" of the Eagles was easy but evidently they didn't do much thinking.

This game ended a long row of defeats for the Eagles. Their "slump" of seven straight defeats was ended by this fast game, in which R. T. "Sheik" McDaniels, as center; Capt. Ralph "Hoxie" Cabe and Woodrow "Pete" Hazlewood, as forwards; and Joe Jennings and Jim Cabe, the guards, played the entire game for Canyon.

Although the Sandies played as good a game as they did Tuesday of last week they were lost before the "bigger and better speed and stamina" of the Eagles. The game was one well worth seeing as the tournament games will be next Friday and Saturday.

Come out and help the Eagles win!

Faculty Found Guilty in Trial Given by Sophs

Judge Wilford Taylor called the house to order Thursday morning with two blows of his hammer. J. C. Carruth and T. H. MacDonald were summoned before the court first. Mr. Carruth was charged for giving "Intelligence Tests" a few weeks ago. Mr. MacDonald was charged for whipping pupils. Their punishment was to jump the rope 25 times. They soon served their term.

The judge next summoned Miss Grace Clark. She was charged for making the boys return and re-ascending the stairs if they took two or three steps at a time. Her sentence was to solve the problem "Why is a cow?" She soon proved it with the solution that a cow is a cow.

Winnie McCarty and Stella Rusk, both unmarried, were summoned before the court. Miss McCarty was charged for forcing the girls to sew baby gowns and cook food. Miss Rusk was charged for prohibiting the girls on her basketball team the pleasure to eat candy. Their sentence was to sing a duet. Miss Rusk sang "Three Blind Mice," while Miss McCarty sang "Yankee Doodle." This was a beautiful duet.

The judge then called Marguerite Dickerson, Jewel Foster and Mattie Jordan before him. They were charged for sending pupils to a room after 4 o'clock and look at a book for one hour. The judge pronounced this a case of cruelty to dumb animals. Their sentence was to play one game of jacks.

Miss McFarland was charged for cheating old Sol. This is purely a violation of the law protecting fur-bearing animals. She was sentenced to sing the first two stanzas of Grey's "Elegy Written in a Country Church Yard" to the tune of "When Those Canyon Eagles."

Alice Frey and Elizabeth Wieler were charged with trying to insert marbles instead of pennies in the weighing machine at Jarrett's. They were sentenced to go up and down the aisles four times blowing horns. They were allowed to keep the horns.

Joe Beck Spann was then called before the court. He was charged for not enforcing the command that girls of Canyon High should not wear the boys' sweaters. He was found guilty. His sentence was to execute a "Fairy Dance" in which he was in action five minutes.

The judge's hammer was heard again and the court adjourned. As a whole the program was immensely enjoyed by all, but later we noticed the lessons getting harder.

"There's one league that does its best work on wet grounds."

Dear Friends:

I don't think the boss likes me much. He says I'm too nosy, whatever he means by that.

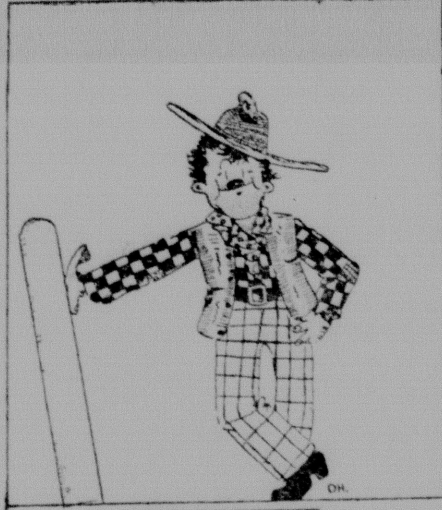

But I notice I'm still here and since I like the job all right I guess I'll stay. I'm beginning to find out Mr. Hartman is a pretty nice man to work for, too—in some ways.

One thing I have noticed since I've been the official ad. writer here and that is the customers who come in the store act like they've been here before. Lots of them seem real well acquainted. And I notice most of them buy something.

Now it don't take any Sherlock Holmes to figure out that those folks have been mighty well pleased with purchases they made and the treatment they got here in times past or they wouldn't come back. Probably that is why Mr. Hartman has such a nice business.

CACTUS CAL

Well, well, well, and well. We won a ball game, and from that fast aggregation, the "Amarillo Golden Sandstorms." We would like another crack at them in the tournament, though, and at Hereford, too, as far as that's concerned. It looked like old times Friday night. Even Sheik got hot once again and landed three or four "impossible" shots. Those "Golden Sandstorms" turned out to be just so much dust, after all. When the smoke cleared away there wasn't anything left but a few Sandies and the Amarillo pep squad with their mouths open.

The Juniors and Seniors had a pretty good party Saturday night, but it could have been better, they could have had more refreshments for one thing. What do they think we pay class dues for anyway? (If somebody tells you I haven't paid mine don't listen at them.)

New Rest Room for Girls Is Completed

Yes, at last the rest room for the C. H. S. girls is completed. Everyone is very glad that the room is now ready for use. Even the boys are beginning to feel ill in order that they might have a chance to either miss class or get to use the rest room.

The room was formerly a classroom and it was very hard to make such a large room appear attractive. The furniture, including a bed, a dressing table, a library table and chair, a rocking chair, and several small pieces, is of lettuce green. Rugs, flowers, and curtains make the room a cozy and inviting one.

The girls wish to thank those who co-operated in furnishing this room.

There was a loud, impatient knock at the door. Satan yelled, "Come in!"

"Well, what's the matter now?" he growled as a small red-tailed imp popped into the sanctum.

"That baseball umpire in hell No. 23 wants another blanket!" answered the imp.

Mother—Why didn't you call me, Doris, when that young man tried to kiss you?

CANYON WILL BE READY FOR INTERSCHOLASTIC TOURNAMENT TO BE HERE FRIDAY, SATURDAY

Talk on Safety Given in Chapel By Santa Fe Man

"Children, teachers and bus-drivers (if any are present)." This was the beginning of a talk made by Mr. Frank A. Haggart to the students of Canyon High School. This man has for thirty-four years been employed as an engineer by the Santa Fe railroad. Mr. Haggart, impressed and also distressed by the many lives lost through carelessness around trains, was appealing to the school children for co-operation along this line. He stated that if someone would tell him how the Santa Fe people could better this situation, they would, before sundown, take action toward it. Since this is true, and one can readily see that it is true, the blame does not fall on the engineers and train people, but on the car drivers and children themselves. There are a number of ways in which people are killed by trains. One of these is for a person to try to "hop" a train. How careless and unsensible this seems to us, and yet so many young boys do it. If they are not thrown under the train and killed, they are usually left a cripple for life.

Of all the words in the English language, Mr. Haggart said that he thought of "cripple" as one of the most horrible because it carried with its meaning such misery and pain. For instance, he told of a little boy who had just started to school. Seeing a train, he decided to "hop" it. He did so, but it cost him his life. He was hurled among the running wheels and dragged for a long way.

This was only one among many other tragic accidents told by this engineer. His stories seemed more real to the listeners because they took place in and around the Panhandle. Mr. Haggart said never to believe a train employee when he told you that one eventually becomes hardened to running over and crushing people because it was not so. He said that each time it became more horrible and nerve-racking to them. It seems that with all these train accidents staring us in the face, that people would wake up to the fact that racing with trains, hopping trains, and driving over a crossing with a wig-wag warning are really dangerous. It is risking the life of not only the driver but all those with him. This certainly should be a challenge to everyone who calls himself a citizen of the United States and who claims her protection to do his utmost in bettering these conditions.

The Canyon Eagles are going to make hash out of some teams in the Interscholastic League Basketball Tournament, to be held here Friday and Saturday, it appears, after the way they trounced Amarillo.

There will be seventeen teams in this meat. The main rivals to Canyon will be Happy, Panhandle, Hereford, and Tulla. All these teams have a good reputation for their prowess and they will have an ample chance to prove it.

If the Eagles stay out of their "slump" they'll fight. Come to the Buffalo gym and boost the Eagles.

HI-SCHOOL MARBLE CRAZE

The High School boys have developed a great passion for playing marbles. Every day at noon, great crowds of boys are seen playing marbles in front of the store. They seem to enjoy this greatly and are sorry when the bell calls them to their books. It has been said by teachers that if the boys would develop just such a craze over their books and the preparation of their lessons, that their report cards would have a much better appearance.

MORE IN SORROW THAN IN ANGER

To sit upon a lonely beach
And be completely out of reach
Of schools and desks and such
Would gratify me very much;
And though I've made it more than clear

That at this season of the year
A tranquil, balmy, southern sea
With beach attached, appeals to me.

I grieve to be compelled to state
Our teachers don't co-operate.

JONES' RAT STORY

A good story is told on Jones. As he jumped into bed one night his feet touched something soft and warm. A thrill ran through him. Thinking it was a rat, he let out a yell and threw off the covers. Whistling for his dog, he pointed to the clothes, with the order to "Git 'em, Towser!"

Towser dove into the scrambled covers and soon brought out a hot-water bag.

WHO GOT THE NECK?

"My landlady saved me the tenderest part of the chicken yesterday when I was late for dinner."

"What part was that?"

"Some of the gravy."

Opportunity goes only so far. We should not assume that the prosperity built here by our fathers is perpetual. The economic history of modern civilization is strewn with the ruins of once-mighty edifices of business power.

Hazards Of The Gas Business

No other public utility operation is as hazardous as the natural gas business.

The duration of the business is limited by nature, because the commodity in which the utility deals is supplied by nature alone. The supply is limited and is exhaustible, and when exhausted can never be recreated.

Artificial gas companies, electric light companies, railroad companies, telegraph and telephone companies create the basic elements of their service; their business is stable and their duration is not limited. But this is not true of a natural gas utility. When the supply of gas is exhausted, the equipment is worthless except for the price that it will bring as junk.

It is vital to the progress and welfare of any community that its utility companies be extended a measure of co-operation which will permit them to give the excellent service which they desire to give—and which the citizens have a right to expect.

Seniors Guests of Juniors in Annual Party

On last Saturday evening, February 15, the Juniors of Canyon High entertained the Seniors, and the event proved to be one of the nicest of the year.

Seventeen tables of forty-two were enjoyed in the High School gymnasium. Decorations and favors were in keeping with the St. Valentine season. Following the games of forty-two, a unique contest of placing to the right person the baby pictures of the Senior class was very interesting and exciting. During the week before, the curiosity of the Seniors reached a high pitch while the Juniors were collecting these baby pictures, and it was not until the party Saturday evening that this curiosity was satisfied.

Delicious refreshments of sandwiches, minis, and soda pop were served to a jolly group, and then everyone left for home, the Seniors declaring the Juniors wonderful hosts, and thanking them for the good time.

The High School boys have developed a great passion for playing marbles. Every day at noon, great crowds of boys are seen playing marbles in front of the store. They seem to enjoy this greatly and are sorry when the bell calls them to their books. It has been said by teachers that if the boys would develop just such a craze over their books and the preparation of their lessons, that their report cards would have a much better appearance.

MORE IN SORROW THAN IN ANGER

To sit upon a lonely beach And be completely out of reach Of schools and desks and such Would gratify me very much; And though I've made it more than clear

That at this season of the year A tranquil, balmy, southern sea With beach attached, appeals to me.

I grieve to be compelled to state Our teachers don't co-operate.

JONES' RAT STORY

A good story is told on Jones. As he jumped into bed one night his feet touched something soft and warm. A thrill ran through him. Thinking it was a rat, he let out a yell and threw off the covers. Whistling for his dog, he pointed to the clothes, with the order to "Gilt 'em, Towser!"

Towser dove into the scrambled covers and soon brought out a hot-water bag.

WHO GOT THE NECK?

"My landlady saved me the tenderest part of the chicken yesterday when I was late for dinner."

"What part was that?"

"Some of the gravy."

Opportunity goes only so far. We should not assume that the prosperity built here by our fathers is perpetual. The economic history of modern civilization is strewn with the ruins of once-mighty edifices of business power.

Hazards Of The Gas Business

No other public utility operation is as hazardous as the natural gas business.

The duration of the business is limited by nature, because the commodity in which the utility deals is supplied by nature alone. The supply is limited and is exhaustible, and when exhausted can never be recreated.

Artificial gas companies, electric light companies, railroad companies, telegraph and telephone companies create the basic elements of their service; their business is stable and their duration is not limited. But this is not true of a natural gas utility. When the supply of gas is exhausted, the equipment is worthless except for the price that it will bring as junk.

It is vital to the progress and welfare of any community that its utility companies be extended a measure of co-operation which will permit them to give the excellent service which they desire to give—and which the citizens have a right to expect.

OLD IRONSIDES

(By Oliver Wendell Holmes)
Ay, tear her tattered ensign down,
Long has it waved on high,
And many an eye has danced to see

That banner in the sky;
Beneath it rung the battle shout
And burst the cannon's roar—
The meteor of the ocean air
Shall sweep the clouds no more.

Her deck, once red with heroes' blood,
Where knelt the vanquished foe,
When winds were hurrying o'er the flood

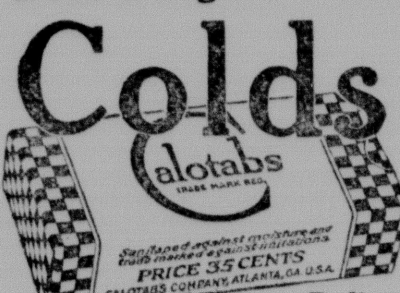

And waves were white below,
No more shall feel the victor's tread,
Or know the conquered knee;
The harp of the shore shall pluck

The eagle of the sea!

Oh, better that her battered hulk
Should sink beneath the wave;
Her thunder shock the mighty deep

And there should be her grave;
Nail to the mast her holy flag,
Set every threadbare sail,
And give her to the god of storms,
The lightning and the gale.

COMMUNISTS

A group of Communist agitators tried to hold a public meeting on the steps of New York's city hall the other day. They had neglected to obtain a permit for a public meeting and the police dispersed them. They fought the police and some of them got broken heads. Many half-baked thinkers see in that episode an example of tyranny.

It was rather an example of the Communists' lofty disregard for all the laws of civilized nations. Their record in Russia proves that their whole scheme of government is more tyrannical than the worst of the czars. Every American citizen has a right to agitate for a change in the laws, or the Constitution itself. There is no place in America for those who teach disobedience to law.

OVERPRODUCTION

The best short phrase descriptive of farming conditions was coined by the secretary of agriculture in a radio talk the other day. "Blind production for an unknown demand" were Mr. Hyde's words. Every farmer has experienced the evils of overproduction. The pendulum swings too far each way. One year a short crop brings high prices; the next year every farmer produces more of that commodity and the markets are glutted at low prices.

For the first time in history, intelligent steps are being taken by our government to keep farmers from competing with each other and to compel them to work together to control production and so make farming a profitable business for all engaged in it.

Mr. Hyde is right in saying that the farmers of America face in the coming years as stern a test as ever faced our forefathers.

CIVILIZATION

Human progress consists in the multiplication of human wants and of the means to supply the new needs. The man who wants nothing we call a savage. He is at liberty to live in the wilds and enjoy life in his own way. The process which we call civilization consists in tempting the savage with commodities which appeal to him so that he will exchange his labor for them.

The next step is to teach him to want things so badly that he is willing to live under the rules of the community where they are to be had.

The trouble with many folk in America today is that they want things without being willing to pay the price, either in labor or in obedience to the community law. The old law of the Pilgrim Fathers, "He who does not work shall not eat," is not sufficiently enforced. Too many parents are letting their boys and girls "have a good time" instead of going to work when they have finished school. It is from this irresponsible leisure class that most of the criminals develop, according to the police commissioner of New York.

THRIFT

Savings deposits throughout the nation are showing an upward trend again. They were considerably depleted for a while, money being withdrawn for stock speculation. Life insurance investments are steadily climbing.

Henry Ford was right when he said that most men under forty should not deprive themselves in order to save. The old idea that thrift means living a stunted life in order to eke out a narrow and bare existence in old age has gone the way of the 12-hour day and the ox team. Every worker today has a surplus above normal living costs out of which a small percentage of savings will insure comfort in later years. In the meantime, Americans are fortunate in being able to enjoy a wide range of luxuries while still laying something by.

NOBILITY

In 1913, when the unrest in the Balkans was already threatening Central Europe with vague mutterings of the great war which began the next year, Frederick C. Penfield, American ambassador to Austria-Hungary, attended a tea-party in Buda-Pest, given by the Archduchess Maria Theresa and attended by many of the highest of the Hungarian nobility.

"If you were all to be deprived of your titles, estates and fortunes, what would you do?" Mr. Penfield asked.

There was silence for a minute or two. Then the archduchess answered:

"I do not know what we would do, but I can tell you one thing we would not do," she replied. "We would not complain."

The man who told me of the incident was one of the noblemen who was at the party. He has a good job in New York, and only a few intimate friends know that he had a high title and a great estate in his native Hungary. Like the rest, he lost all, but he does not complain. The archduchess was right. They are taking their medicine and smiling at the dose. That is true nobility.

CORNSTALKS

Just as the invasion of the European cornborer has put up to every farmer in the corn-growing regions the problem of how to get rid of his cornstalks and hold the pest in check, new inventions for the utilization of this farm waste for making paper and also a substitute for lumber have been perfected.

Now capital in large amount has been subscribed to finance industries which will contract with the farmers for their stalks, after harvest, send their own machines into the field to gather them, and haul them to central points where they will be manufactured into useful products. This will conserve the forests and will also add to the profits of the corn growers.

GAS

The International Red Cross is preparing for the next war. One of the certainties about the next war is that poison gas will be used on a larger scale than ever before. War is no longer an affair of kings and hired armies; it is whole nations against whole nations. The aggressor in our next great war will not wait for the enemy to assemble an army but will try to wipe out a whole city by dropping poison gas from the clouds.

What the Red Cross is looking for is some means of detecting the most minute trace of poison gas in the air. A prize of $2,000 is offered to the successful inventor. And we call this a civilized world!

EMOTIONS

Anger, fear, worry, especially the latter, kill more people than real "disease," according to a report recently made to the New York Academy of Medicine. There is no such thing as overwork, either of body or mind. The body, given sufficient nourishment, will quit of its own accord when fatigue becomes too great, and a night's sleep will put it back into trim once more. Probably no human being has ever used his brain to its full capacity. Men who have studied that subject say that most of us use less than a quarter of our power of thought.

But let worry, jealousy, fear of losing one's job, one's money or one's sweetheart, creep in, and the whole picture is changed. The emotional tension tires both mind and body, which cannot go on without violent stimulation, and the process of decay is hastened. Most of the deaths from heart disease and kidney trouble are the result of emotional tension rather than any real defect in the physical organs.

COAL

Geologists in the Byrd South Pole expedition have found coal in Antarctica. Great Britain takes occasion to remind the United States that considerable parts of the land there are under the protection of the British flag. Trouble-makers, especially the sensational newspapers which prefer war to peace because war is more "newsy," are already trying to lay the foundation for international strife.

If we ever go to war with Great Britain it will be over something far more important than a coal-bed where the temperature always is below freezing and usually 40 degrees or so below zero. Even if the coal were accessible it would not be worth fighting for. Coal is losing its importance in the economic scheme of things, now that oil has become the principal fuel for the world's navies as well as the merchant marine.

Texas' coldest day was February 12, 1899, when an official registration of 12 below zero was recorded in north Texas. Unofficial registrations were as low as 16 below zero.

SAYS! TANLAC WITHOUT EQUAL FOR STOMACH AND LIVER TROUBLES

Nurse Gives Remarkable Endorsement

Tanlac may seem miraculous in its action to millions who ended stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as rheumatism, pains in the back, sides, joints and muscles from its use—but the truth is every drop of Tanlac is a strong potent medicine while most other remedies are weak and ineffective. Mrs. B. Picard, a nurse with many years' experience, is one who ought to know. She says, "In 10 years active nursing have found Tanlac without an equal as a remedy for stomach and liver troubles, and I can certainly promise people wonderful results in view of my long experience with this medicine. I had stomach trouble for years, could eat scarcely anything without suffering, never any appetite, always nervous and run-down. But as soon as I began Tanlac it started to build me right up. All stomach troubles were routed and never any pain, distress or gases since. Now I eat everything with perfect safety." Many "patent medicines" make glowing promises that they can cure a REAL disease that backs its claims with a guarantee. Do not accept a substitute. At all druggists.

Thin, Pale, Weak

"I HAD been through a bad spell of sickness which left me very weak," says Mrs. Virginia Spruce, of Stapleton, Va. "I was pale and felt lifeless, and my strength did not return. I spent most of my time on the bed. I was very nervous, and the least thing upset me. I did not have strength enough to lift a broom. At times I would have bad headaches, which would hurt me until I could hardly see. Someone asked me why I did not try Cardui. I had read of it, so I thought I would see what it would do for me. It was really remarkable how I came out. My strength returned, and my health was better than it had been in years. I gained in weight about ten pounds. My color was good, and I ceased to suffer from headaches. I have told my friends about Cardui because I was benefited after taking it."

J. D. GAMBLE

Thin, Pale, Weak

"I HAD been through a bad spell of sickness which left me very weak," says Mrs. Virginia Spruce, of Stapleton, Va. "I was pale and felt lifeless, and my strength did not return. I spent most of my time on the bed. I was very nervous, and the least thing upset me. I did not have strength enough to lift a broom. At times I would have had headaches, which would hurt me until I could hardly see. Someone asked me why I did not try Cardui. I had read of it, so I thought I would see what it would do for me. It was really remarkable how I came out. My strength returned, and my health was better than it had been in years. I gained in weight about ten pounds. My color was good, and I ceased to suffer from headaches. I have told my friends about Cardui because I was benefited after taking it."

SAYS! TANLAC WITHOUT EQUAL FOR STOMACH AND LIVER TROUBLES

Nurse Gives Remarkable Endorsement

Tanlac may seem miraculous in its action to millions who ended stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as rheumatism, pains in the back, sides, joints and muscles from its use—but the truth is every drop of Tanlac is a strong potent medicine while most other remedies are weak and ineffective. Mrs. B. Picard, a nurse with many years' experience, is one who ought to know. She says, "In 10 years active nursing have found Tanlac without an equal as a remedy for stomach and liver troubles, and I can certainly promise people wonderful results in view of my long experience with this medicine. I had stomach troubles for years, could eat scarcely anything without suffering, never any appetite, always nervous and run-down. But as soon as I began Tanlac it started to build me right up. All stomach troubles were routed and never any pain, distress or gases since. Now I eat everything with perfect safety." Many "patent medicines" make glowing promises that may tempt you to buy them but remember Tanlac is a REAL medicine that backs its claims with a guarantee. Do not accept a substitute. At all druggists.

HINTS FOR THE HOME

BY NANCY HART

Make Baby Covers

From old blankets you can make the most desirable sort of covers for the new baby. These may be made from pieces of the blanket of convenient size, simply hemmed around or finished with blanket stitch or bound. They have the advantage over new blankets of being very soft and pliable and are better to use than knitted coverlets, because they can be washed frequently. There is an excellent sort of carriage or crib cover that calls for pieces of old blanket. Make a cover of any desired wash material. Line it with the same material or with thin muslin. Leave a slit in the back of this lining, through which a double layer of the old blanket, cut just the right size, may be inserted. Put the hands into the cover and push out the blanket at the corners. You may then keep it secure by fastening at each corner through with a tiny safety pin, or you may have little tapes at the corner of the blanket and run these through small button holes at the corners of the cover, tying the ends secure.

The advantage of this sort of cover is that it may be washed easily and yet may be warm. The ordinary knitted carriage robe, of course, becomes thickened with many washes and never looks so attractive after it has been submitted to frequent washings.

Keep Children Comfortable

When the children divide their time between a comfortable home and the cold out-of-doors, it is sometimes difficult to decide on the proper clothing for them. Thick woolen garments are suitable for skating or a romp through the snow, but they are too warm for a steam-heated apartment.

Light weight underwear and cotton suits or dresses are a wise choice for children who live in a well-heated house. These are desirable because they are most comfortable indoors and because of the ease with which they can be kept clean.

In choosing the outer wraps, it should be remembered that two light-weight garments are warmer than a heavy one. A practical selection is a woolen coat that is loose enough for a sweater to be worn underneath on especially cold days. Leggings will also come in handy in frigid weather.

Orange Sherbet

Grate the rind of four oranges on two and one-half cups of sugar. Add to it one quart of water; put it in a double boiler and cook to a clear syrup, being very careful to remove all the scum. Remove from the fire and strain through a fine muslin cloth. When cold, add the strained juice of twelve oranges and two lemons, and one pint of cold water. If not sweet enough, add more sugar. Strain it and freeze.

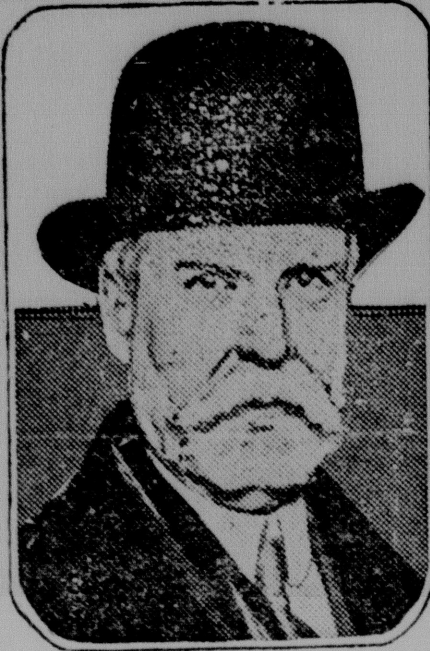

GOLDEN SUNDAY

Put in a sauce pan one-half cup orange juice, one tablespoon lemon juice, three-fourths cup sugar and a few grains of salt, and boil five minutes. Cool, and add pulp of one orange cut in small pieces, one tablespoonful maraschino cherries cut in small pieces, and one tablespoonful maraschino syrup. Serve over vanilla ice cream.

In 1929, Texas brought in 5,101 producing oil wells, and 574 gas wells. Dry wells numbered 3,333.

Farming pays in Randall county.

HONESTY IN BUSINESS

By Bruce Barton

I graduated from college when muckraking was in its greatest glory.

The magazines and newspapers and reformers had filled our youthful minds with so much distressing information that we hardly knew whether the world was a safe place for us to step out into or not.

We looked askance at all the fellows in college whose fathers had made money. To be sure, the fathers seemed decent enough old codgers when they visited us at the fraternity house. But we felt that something was dark and bad in their past somewhere.

A business man was a being without conscience or intelligence, like a slot-machine. You gave him a nickle and he gave you a nickle's worth of goods.

If he took your nickle and withheld the goods, then he was a successful business man.

We know better now. In fact, I believe it could be shown that the greatest force for righteousness in the United States today is nothing more nor less than the once maligned business.

Business is the greatest ally and promoter of Honesty. And more and more I have come to feel that Honesty is, after all, the cornerstone of all the virtues.

Nothing has impressed me more than this: Get to the top of a big business enterprise, and nine times out of ten you will find an idealist.

You will find a man who has long since ceased to be interested in mere money-making, who is staying in business because of what he wants has business to do for his employees, his community, and his country.

I do not say that business is perfect. Far from it.

But I do say that the time is past when the young man who goes into business needs to feel that he is making a selfish choice—a choice that cuts him off from service to his fellow men.

"Be not slothful in business," said St. Paul, "fervent in spirit; Serving the Lord."

Many a man, building a big business in America, has, as a by-product of his building, strengthened the character and lifted the ideals of hundreds of his associates, and helped in the regeneration of a whole community.

And the number of such men—the idealists of BUSINESS in America—is increasing very fast.

THE "RACKETEER" AND THE FARMER

The newest development in the field of crime is the so-called racketeer. The racketeer is a man or a gang of men who prey upon small business men by demanding tribute for "protection." If the merchant approached declines to pay, something happens to his store some night; a bomb blows out the front window, or his groceries are drenched with kerosene, or some similar outrage makes him see the light. The next time the racketeer comes around, he pays.

The problem of the racketeer does not concern the big cities alone. One of the favorite hunting grounds of the racketeer is among the dealers in foodstuffs. It has been said that every crate of poultry, every can of milk, every bushel of garden produce that goes into New York or Chicago pays tribute to the racketeers. That may be exaggerated, but there is enough truth in it to make it hurt.

Everything that makes his food cost the city man more than he ought to pay is bad for the grower of foodstuffs. The producer gets a small enough percentage of what the consumer pays, as it is. The effort of the federal farm board to reduce this "spread" and put a larger part of the consumer's dollar into the farmer's pocket will have to take the racketeer into consideration as well as the more or less legitimate middleman. With farmers owning their own marketing machinery, the ultimate retail distribution will still be through individual local dealers, especially in the fruit, vegetable, poultry and egg trades.

There is little doubt that, except for the racketeers, most food supplies can be, and eventually will be, sold in the larger cities for lower average prices than now prevail, while at the same time the grower gets higher prices.

Weakly Windbag

By the Office Loafer

"The average girl will be willing to bow gracefully to fashion's decree that skirts shall be worn longer, provided it refers to time and not to length." Sez Steve in the Memphis News.

Well, right here and now we take Mr. Steve to hand for such a statement. It is absolutely absurd and ridiculous to make such assertions. Mr. Steve surely must not be a latched up man like the Loafer or he'd know better. The matter with the women folks in that regards to wearing 'em a long time longer just don't go. When a woman wears a dress two times she claims that she has worn the dress one time longer than she was supposed to wear it when she bought it. Folks, I know, I know. I sure do.

It's talked and rumored over parts of east Texas that west Texas is over-advertised and too much propaganda is put out. We all know it ain't so, but over at Wellington, the Wellington Leader makes a statement that kinda gets west Texas in the wrong light. An article recently appeared in that paper that stated that a club girl in that county set a hen on 13 eggs and the hen hatched 15 of them.

That almost makes me believe not to believe all that I read in the papers.

Folks, I have made a great discovery, really and truly I have. No joking or fooling about it.

Ever since I have been hanging my hat on a peg in this office, I have noticed people come along, especially the college flappers, and stand in front of the office and primp.

Some time ago I called this to the attention of the young squirt in the back shop. His remark was that perhaps they stopped and primped for the reason of my bright and shining countenance. Well, it ain't so. No, siree. I was coming across the street the other day and I saw a young flapper stop and gaze into the office and fix a little curl on her forehead. It was then and there I found things out. It wasn't because I was in here, but it was the mirror in front of the News building.

Well, that's that.

Cholly—I wondah, old chap, if bwain wuhk is yeaally as twying as people say it is?

Alfwed—Ah, by Jove, I wondah!

Weakly Windbag

By the Office Loafer

"The average girl will be willing to bow gracefully to fashion's decree that skirts shall be worn longer, provided it refers to time and not to length." Sez Steve in the Memphis News.

Well, right here and now we take Mr. Steve to hand for such a statement. It is absolutely absurd and ridiculous to make such assertions. Mr. Steve surely must not be a hitched up man like the Loafer or he'd know better. The matter with the women folks in that regards to wearing 'em a long time longer just don't go. When a woman wears a dress two times she claims that she has worn the dress one time longer than she was supposed to wear it when she bought it. Folks, I know, I know, I sure do.

It's talked and rumored over parts of east Texas that west Texas is over-advertised and too much propaganda is put out. We all know it ain't so, but over at Wellington, the Wellington Leader makes a statement that kinda gets west Texas in the wrong light. An article recently appeared in that paper that stated that a club girl in that county set a hen on 13 eggs and the hen hatched 15 of them.

That almost makes me believe not to believe all that I read in the papers.

Folks, I have made a great discovery, really and truly I have. No joking or fooling about it.

Ever since I have been hanging my hat on a peg in this office, I have noticed people come along, especially the college flappers, and stand in front of the office and primp.

Some time ago I called this to the attention of the young squirt in the back shop. His remark was that perhaps they stopped and primped for the reason of my bright and shining countenance. Well, it ain't so. No, sree. I was coming across the street the other day and I saw a young flapper stop and gaze into the office and fix a little curl on her forehead. It was then and there I found things out. It wasn't because I was in here, but it was the mirror in front of the News building.

Well, that's that.

Cholly—I wondah, old chap, if bwain wuhk is yeaally as twying as people say it is?

Alfred—Ah, by Jove, I wondah!

Candidate for District Attorney

WM. LEO SPARKS

Wm. Leo Sparks, county attorney of Potter county, has announced as a candidate for the office of District Attorney of the 47th Judicial District. The following statement was made Monday by Mr. Sparks:

Declaring for the severe prosecution of the murderer and the hijacker, that life and property might be made safer in this district, Wm. Leo Sparks, county attorney of Potter county, announces his candidacy for the office of District Attorney of the 47th Judicial District, comprising the counties of Potter, Randall and Armstrong.

"The gravest menace," his statement says, "is the murderer and the hijacker, and if elected District Attorney of this district I shall apply myself to the prosecution of this criminal element, as well as a vigorous prosecution of all law violation; to the end that life will be safer and property rights protected."

Mr. Sparks called attention in his statement to the growing list of crimes in the district. "As County Attorney of Potter county," his statement continued, "I have been in charge of the investigation and the examining trials of felony cases that are tried by the District Attorney and my experience in the past four years as such fit me for the office I am now seeking. The office belongs to the people to confer and I shall make an active campaign in all three counties, and I shall make the race for this office upon a high plane upon my own merits and qualifications. During my four years in the office of County Attorney of Potter county my record will show that I have secured more convictions and longer jail sentences for theft cases than ever before in the history of the county. The thief is a dangerous criminal for where he plies his trade it leads to hijacking and to murder."

"Upon my qualifications," his statement concluded, "I shall ask the people to promote me to the office of District Attorney of the 47th Judicial District of Texas, and as such I shall, with the help of an able assistant, dedicate myself to my native district to the enforcement of the laws of Texas."

Candidate for District Attorney

WM. LEO SPARKS

Wm. Leo Sparks, county attorney of Potter county, has announced as a candidate for the office of District Attorney of the 47th Judicial District. The following statement was made Monday by Mr. Sparks:

Declaring for the severe prosecution of the murderer and the hijacker, that life and property might be made safer in this district, Wm. Leo Sparks, county attorney of Potter county, announces his candidacy for the office of District Attorney of the 47th Judicial District, comprising the counties of Potter, Randall and Armstrong.

"The gravest menace," his statement says, "is the murderer and the hijacker, and if elected District Attorney of this district I shall apply myself to the prosecution of this criminal element, as well as a vigorous prosecution of all law violation; to the end that life will be safer and property rights protected."

Mr. Sparks called attention in his statement to the growing list of crimes in the district. "As County Attorney of Potter county," his statement continued, "I have been in charge of the investigation and the examining trials of felony cases that are tried by the District Attorney and my experience in the past four years as such fit me for the office I am now seeking. The office belongs to the people to confer and I shall make an active campaign in all three counties, and I shall make the race for this office upon a high plane upon my own merits and qualifications. During my four years in the office of County Attorney of Potter county my record will show that I have secured more convictions and longer jail sentences for theft cases than ever before in the history of the county. The thief is a dangerous criminal for where he plies his trade it leads to hijacking and to murder."

"Upon my qualifications," his statement concluded, "I shall ask the people to promote me to the office of District Attorney of the 47th Judicial District of Texas, and as such I shall, with the help of an able assistant, dedicate myself to my native district to the enforcement of the laws of Texas."

Glee Club Will Give Program On Wednesday

On Wednesday, February 26, will appear one of the most attractive home talent programs which has been given in Canyon. This is the concert by the Girls' Glee Club under the direction of Miss Pauline Brigham.

Mrs. Otis Truelove, soprano, and Mrs. R. R. Swindell, soprano, both prominent in Amarillo musical circles, will appear on the program.

Miss Brigham states that the Glee Club is by far the best which the College has ever had, and the girls have been preparing for this program since early fall.

The twenty-five girls who sing in the organization come from widely separated points. Six of the twenty-five members are from Canyon, two are from Hereford, while Snyder, Runningwater, Wildorado, Pecos, McLean, Comanche, Memphis, Clarendon, and Panhandle, Texas, together with San Jon and Wagon Mound, New Mexico, and Frankfort, South Dakota, are represented in the group.

The concert in Canyon is being given in order that home people may become acquainted with the organization before it goes on a road trip early in March.
